

$8.50 AND $12.50.

We put on sale this morning on our third floor all small lots and odd sizes (about twelve hundred) of our Men's Suits. Those that have sold for $10, $12, $15, $16.50, and $18 are $8.50, and the $20, $22.50, $25, $27.50, and $30 ones are $12.50.

These are not anybody's shopworn trash, nor are they sweatshop garments manufactured especially for hurrah sales. They are the small lots and broken sizes of OUR OWN INCOMPARABLE STOCK, the same sterling qualities we have always sold you, the productions of such world-renowned firms as ROGERS, PEET & CO. and BROKAW BROS.

There has been no juggling of price tickets, nor a single garment bought for the occasion. They are all out of our regular stock and have the original prices still on the tickets. There are mixed colors in Tweeds, Cassimeres, Cheviots, and Worsteds, and plain solid colors in Thibet Cheviot and Serge, in cutaway frocks and double and single-breasted sacks.

While there are ALL sizes and shapes, the biggest variety is in the larger sizes and stout shapes, but we can FIT and suit any SIZE or shape man.

You'll never get another such chance to purchase such values at these prices. Be among the first to avail yourself of the opportunity to buy GOOD CLOTHES at less than half of their value. Come in to-day and get first choice.

MOORE'S
SHOE PALACE,
810 SEVENTH STREET.

STUPENDOUS Surplus Stock Sale —OF— SEASONABLE SHOES

—AT—

MOORE'S SHOE PALACE.

You know what to expect when we inaugurate a "sale." It means bargains—far superior to any possible to offer by any other shoe firm. You remember our various "sales"—the "Moran" sale, the "Bon Ton" sale, the "Lynn Manufacturers'" sale, the "Ruge & Co." sale, the "Buffalo" sale, the "Dobois" sale of Market Space, the "Robinson & Walton" sale, and other "special sales" due to special purchases. The result is that although we have done an enormous business we bought too many "stocks," and have too many Shoes on hand for this season of the year.

We Must Unload
—hence this grand wind-up "Surplus Stock Sale," during which time we shall sell Shoes as though they cost us nothing.
We propose to increase our hold upon the patronage of the Washington public by offering Unparalleled Bargains.
The sale begins at 9 a. m. THIS MORNING. Large force of experienced shoe clerks engaged to insure all prompt attention. Dozens of other lots as good as these.

BANQUET OUTRAN COOPER.

The Old Flyer Had an Easy Victory Over His Young Rival.

New York, June 13.—There was a little excitement at the races at Morris park to-day. The horses engaged were as a rule of little account, and close finishes were few and far between. The only feature on the card was the Hudson River handicap and only two starters appeared, Banquet and John Cooper, and it was a virtual walkover for the former, as Cooper was never in the race. Summary:

FIRST RACE—Five furlongs. Ed Kearney, 100 (Black), 12 to 1, won by a head; Melba, 90 (Griffin), 1, second by three lengths; Wornall, 110 (Sim), 2 to 1, third. Time—0:58. Gold Dollar, Hurlingham, Fondoline, Sirocco, and Delariff also ran.

SECOND RACE—One mile. La Misere, 117 (Littlefield), 3 to 1, won by 1 1/2 lengths; Flirt, 117 (Sim), 8 to 1, second by two lengths; Son Malheur, 117 (Griffin), 7 to 1, third. Time—1:32. Lightfoot, Florida, Editha, Garden, Baronesse, Clementine, and Poetry also ran.

THIRD RACE—Six furlongs. Connoisseur, 122 (Griffin), 1 to 5, won by 1 1/2 lengths; Spanghede, 111 (Griffin), 7 to 1, second by six lengths; Lady Richmond, 110 (Griffin), 7 to 1, third. Time—1:14. Score.

FOURTH RACE—Hudson River handicap. One and three-eighths mile. Banquet, 112 (Sim), 3 to 5, won by one length; John Cooper, second. Time—2:04.

FIFTH RACE—Five furlongs. Selling. The Con, 107 (Duggett), 3 to 1, won by 1 1/2 lengths; Tiger, 98 (Carter), 2 to 1, second by one and one-half lengths; Biscuits, 108 (Carter), 7 to 1, third. Time—0:59. True Blue, Flush, Litar, L. Carter, Terry, Old Intellect, Campana, Captain Jaded, Clio, Billy, Wiggins, Belgrave, and King Gold also ran.

SIXTH RACE—One mile. Selling. Hamble, 108 (Sim), 3 to 5, won by two lengths; Young Archer, 102 (Hudson), 20 to 1, second by two lengths; George Beck, 100 (Portin), 10 to 1, third. Time—1:31. Panway, Julia L. Shadow, Pultizer, and Melody also ran.

Winners at Latonia Track.
CINCINNATI, June 13.—It was an off day at Latonia, but the six races were well contested and full of interest. The track was fast and several thousand people backed their choices. Three favorites and three second choices divided the money. Results:

FIRST RACE—Selling. One mile and twenty yards. Greaves, 100 (A. Clayton), even, won; Professor S, 100 to 1, second. Time—1:53. Lady Gay, 77 (Cassin), 10 to 1, third. Time—1:44. Idea, Cashier, Hamble, Indicator, and Gloria finished as named.

SECOND RACE—Selling. Six furlongs. Ross, 90 (Graham), 5 to 2, won; Adelaide, 90 (H. Williams), 4 to 1, second; Indus, 106 (Van Kuren), 8 to 1, third. Time—1:15. Nicaragua, Calumet, Alto June, Decapod, Lyons, and Captain Tit finished as named.

THIRD RACE—Nine sixteenths of a mile. Onadana, 110 (Thompson), 5 to 1, won; Buck Fly, Shanty Bob, Little Fish, Glee Her, Doudson, Jim Lone, Ian, and De Rosa finished as named.

FOURTH RACE—One mile. Tariff Reform, 112 (Bav), 2 to 1, won; King Charlie, 117 (J. Hill), 9 to 10, second; Perdita, 112 (Foster), 12 to 1, third. Time—1:49. The Spook and Vena S. finished as named.

WINNERS HAD THINGS EASY

Finishes at the Island Track Were Not at All Close.

CON LUCY DUMPED THE TALENT

With Long Odds Against Gray's Horse Jockey Manlove Rode to Perfection and Beat Out the Two Strong Favorites—Three Favorites Succeeded in Winning Their Races.

The racing at the Island track yesterday was fairly interesting, but the finishes were as a rule rather one-sided. Three favorites were successful, while Ella and Sweet Alice, both topheavy choices, failed to win. Alanthrax was selected as the good thing in the opening event, and George Tooh's fly came up to expectations, winning easily, with Red Dick just getting the place from Finance.

J. Dorney had the mount on Blackburn in the six furlong race and was called up before the race by the judges and cautioned. He had neither whip nor spur, and explained he had disagreed with either by order of the owner. It was ascertained afterwards that Blackburn had not received his customary injection of cocaine, but Dorney rode a capital race, and landed the old horse a good third. The judges should have called the winner, and not the jockey to account.

Key West carried a heavy impost in the third, but crossed equal to the task and won easily from Blackwood. King Bird was a big favorite in the fourth, and won rather easily at the end from C. D. D.

The closing race was generally supposed to be between Sweet Alice and A. O. H., but Con Lucy beat out both the choices. Summary:
